DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Applicant's election of Group I in the reply filed on September 15, 2005 is acknowledged. Because Applicant did not distinctly and specifically point out the supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election has been treated as an election without traverse (MPEP § 818.03(a)).

Claims 2-4 are withdrawn from further consideration pursuant to 37 CFR 1.142(b) as being drawn to a nonelected invention, there being no allowable generic or linking claim. Election was made without traverse in the reply filed on September 15, 2005.

Claims Pending

Claim 1 will be examined on the merits.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the enablement requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to enable one skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and/or use the invention.

Undue experimentation would be required to practice the invention as claimed due to the quantity of experimentation necessary; limited amount of guidance and limited number of working examples in the specification; nature of the invention; state of the prior art; relative skill level of those in the art; predictability or unpredictability in the art; and breadth of the claims. In re Wands, 8 USPQ2d 1400, 1404 (Fed. Cir. 1988).

Applicant's claim is broadly drawn to a method of making a composition comprising Flemingia macrophylla root. The specification is not considered to enable this use because the definition of root cover is unclear. Applicant's specification does not give any definition or show what a root cover is and how it is to be used. In addition, does one use the root cover in the method or what is left over after the root cover is removed? Thus, Applicant does not provide enough information for a person of ordinary skill in the art to determine without undue experimentation what a root cover is and how to use it in the claimed invention.

Art Unit: 1655

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In claim 1, it is unclear as to what a "root cover" is. In addition, it is unclear if the root cover itself is used in the following method steps. Clarification is needed.

In claim 1, the term "fine" is indefinite because it is unclear as to what is encompassed by this term.

In claim 1, the recitation "allowing to filter" is in passive voice which makes it appear that filtering happens naturally.

Summary

No claim is allowed.

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to Applicant's disclosure. The Japanese Patent 2000247829 (translation provided) discloses using the root of Flemingia macrophylla. However, JP2000247829 does not disclose removing the method steps involved as in the claimed invention.
